

LAURA HODGE

Multi Disciplinary Performance and Teaching Artist

Executive Artistic Director of Creative Arts International (formerly San Diego Creative Arts Project), and Rosarito Dance Theatre, Laura is a Dance and Theatre Master Educator, Choreographer, Director, Performing Artist, and Voiceover Artist, whose work is respected from Coast to Coast, and Mexico. Laura is originally from Pittsburgh, Pa, where she has performed in numerous Musical Theatre productions, Dance companies, Touring Companies, Film, and Television, is a Union Member of SAG-Screen Actors Guild, and does Voice Over work. Recently Laura has been writing, directing and producing original scripts for modern versions of old fairy tales, with Bi-National productions in San Diego, Tijuana, and Rosarito. Laura has also created, and produced performance pieces for San Diego LGBTQ Pride- "Light Up the Cathedral, and recently "La Ruta del Blues de México". Currently Laura is running Encore Creative Arts Camps, teaching theatre and dance at schools throughout San Diego, and classes for her company Creative Arts International.

<https://www.creativeartsinternational.org/>

FB: @creativeartsinternational

IG: @creative_arts_international